

Warwick Lady Warrior Youth Camp
Females Age 6-12
June 25-28 5-7pm at Warwick HS fields
$50 per player (Signed Ball and T-shirt Included)
Registration deadline June 1st, 2018

Overview:

Campers will receive training from the directors as well as top level players within the HS program. Campers will be taught the technical skills within an environment that encourages learning and teaches the joy of playing this game. Each day will have a specific focus, including dribbling, passing and receiving, finishing and small sided games. Campers will receive a T-shirt and soccer ball if they register by the deadline. Every camper is also invited to the Warwick HS Girls Soccer Alumni game on July 21st at 6pm as well as a regular season game in the 2018 fall season. The Lady Warriors would like to recognize each camper for their effort, determination, passion and skill shown during the week.

Director: Wendell Hannaford

-Wendell has been coaching soccer at multiple levels for over 10 years. He spent 3 seasons as the Assistant and Goalkeeper coach for the Albright college Men's and Women's Soccer programs. He has been a head coach of U15 and older teams with Penn Legacy Soccer Club since 2011 as well as coaching the club's goalkeepers. Wendell has been on the EPYSA ODP staff since 2015 working with the U12 and U13 Boys and Girls in the Lancaster area. In his playing days, he helped lead the Albright Lions to the first playoff appearance in over 30 years. He was named Commonwealth Conference Goalkeeper of the week twice, was a member of the All-Conference team in 2007, and still holds the All-time school records for career shutouts and lowest goals against average. Wendell holds the NSCAA Goalkeeper diploma, NFHS/ USC Professional Development Diploma, and multiple USSF and NSCAA coaching diplomas/certificates.
